PREDECEASED FOR ACTRESSES.

According to an announcement from Davenport, Iowa, by Mrs. A. Bruner, mother of Mrs. Beatrice Bruner Godfrey, an actress, the young woman is engaged to marry Jay Gould, son of George J. Gould. This is denied, however, at the offices of the latter's father in New York.

Mrs. Godfrey figured in a romantic marriage to Arthur W. Godfrey, a Boston millionaire, with whom she eloped a few years ago, but later secured a divorce from him. She is at present a member of Anna Held's "Miss Innocence" company, which is playing in London.

Theatrical marriages seem to run in the Gould family, and if young Jay Gould is really engaged to Mrs. Godfrey he will be merely following the example of his father, who married Edith Kingston, an actress, the marriage having proved a very happy one. The preference of the Gould boys for women of the stage was also evidenced in the wedding of Frank J. Gould, whom his first wife had divorced, to Miss Edith Kelly, and in that of Howard Gould to Miss Katharine Clemmons, whose troubles have had an extensive airing in the country.

KILLS WIFE AND HIMSELF.

After firing four bullets with fatal effect into the body of his 23-year-old wife, who had run away from him, Shelby Young, 37 years old, a Chicago Elevated Railway conductor, committed suicide yesterday afternoon in Geneva, Ohio.

Mrs. Young left her home in Chicago last Saturday and went to Unionville, a mile south of Geneva, where her father G. Charles Hopes has a farm. She said her husband made her miserable through jealousy, and had destroyed her best clothes to prevent her leaving the house.

Young reached Geneva yesterday morning. He followed his wife to the farm of Charles Stevens, where she had gone to pay a visit. The young woman was on the porch talking to Mrs. Stevens when her husband approached and asked her to return home. She refused, and Young drew a revolver and fired four shots through her body, killing her. Turning the weapon on himself, he sent the two remaining bullets into his head. He died two hours later.

BANANA TRUSTSUE.

On the declaration that the United Fruit Company, holder of a majority of the stock of the Bluefields Steamship Company, limited, by alleged dominating tactics has caused a loss of at least $3,500,000 to the Bluefields company, as well as blocking competition in the business of importing fruits from tropical regions to this country, Federal Judge Holland of Philadelphia has appointed Elmer E. Wood ancillary receiver of the Bluefields company.

This action follows that of the Circuit Court for the District of Louisiana, which on December 3 last appointed Mr. Wood primary receiver upon the application of Frederick M. Steele, of Chicago, a stockholder of the Bluefields organization, who is also the petitioner in the present case.

In the order appointing Mr. Wood ancillary receiver Judge Holland instructs him to institute proceedings against the United Fruit Company to recover $3,500,000, the amount of the alleged loss.

THE SMITHFIELD HAM.

The producers of what is perhaps the most famous delicacy that comes out of Virginia, the Smithfield ham, are wrought up by the efforts of a Richmond man to appropriate the name of their world-famed product as his exclusive property. An effort has been made to register the name "Smithfield Ham" as a trade mark.

Congressman Maynard was appealed to in Norfolk by telephone and telegraph, yesterday, by the people at Smithfield, who would be robbed of the right to use the name under which their product has been sold for 300 years, should the patent office grant the application of the Richmond man. Mr. Maynard immediately telegraphed a long protest to the commissioner of patents, at Washington, citing the fact that the secret of curing Smithfield hams had been learned by the early settlers from the Indians.

He has represented in strong terms the irreparable damage that would be done the producers of Smithfield hams by the granting of patent rights on the name of the product, and asked that the application be refused.

MAYOR ATHERTON RESIGNS.

After a conference, lasting many hours, Herbert Atherton, mayor of Newark, Ohio, resigned his office yesterday, in response to pressure exerted upon him by leaders of his party and personal friends.

The reason given was that it was hoped thereby to save the city the disgrace of an investigation by the gov-

ICE CREAM

1 Cent a Dish

If Ice Cream could only take the place of most of the substantial dishes at dinner a great deal of money would be saved.

Ice Cream, which has always been considered a luxury, costs less, made from

than meat. Its actual cost is about one cent a dish.

And it is good, substantial food, too. Dissolve Jell-O Ice Cream Powder in milk and freeze. That is all there is to do. Makes a delicious, creamy, smooth, chocolate, and Unflavored.
